Shri Nehal Vora, Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer, said, “FY26 stands as a defining year in our journey of empowering India’s Atmanirbhar Investors. Surpassing 18 crore demat accounts reflects not merely scale, but the deepening trust of Indian households in the securities market, and with under 10% of India’s population participating today, the runway ahead remains substantial.

To reimagine investor empowerment and market trust at scale, CDSL launched its first ever Reimagine Ideathon, an initiative under the annual Reimagine Symposium, engaging young innovative minds innovate for the securities market. In partnership with Amar Chitra Katha, CDSL IPF unveiled an investor education comic series in 12 languages, with the objective of strengthening investor awareness through engaging and culturally rooted storytelling.

In a period marked by geopolitical uncertainty and market volatility, the underlying market framework has continued to function with stability and reliability, reinforcing investor confidence. We remain steadfast in investing in people and technology, ensuring the securities market ecosystem stays convenient, dependable and secure for every investor, regardless of location.”
